

University of Toronto TORONTO ONTARIO M5S 1A1

---

University Tribunal

March 30, 1994

BY REGISTERED MAIL

PERSONAL AND CONFIDENTIAL

MS T.

West Hill, Ontario

Dear Ms T.

At its hearings held on March 7th, 1994 and March 28th, 1994, the University Tribunal considered the following charges against you:

1. THAT on or about April 22, 1993, you did use or possess an unauthorized aid or aids or did obtain unauthorized assistance and/or aided, assisted, abetted, counselled, procured or conspired with another person to use or possess an unauthorized aid or aids or obtain unauthorized assistance in an academic examination, contrary to Sections B.I.I.(b) and B.II.1.(a) of the University of Toronto Code of Behaviour on Academic Matters.

In particular, in the spring of 1993 you were enrolled in CLA A02Y: Greek and Roman Mythology. On April 22, 1993, you wrote the final examination in the course and were seated in the examination room close to Mr. Z. . Your answers were virtually identical to those of Mr. Z. , with the exception of Part E, which you did not answer. A majority of those answers were erroneous. Among the essay answers, some of the wording was highly unusual yet repeated in both examinations.

I am writing to formally advise you of the decision of the Tribunal with respect to these charges. The jury found you guilty and agreed to impose the following sanction:

- suspension from the University for a period of five years;
- and that:
- notation of the sanction and the reasons for it to be recorded on your transcript for a period of ten years, and
  - the case be reported to the Provost for publication, with the name of the student withheld.

The jury gave the following reasons for its decision: "We found the case of Ms T. a flagrant disregard of the Academic Code of Behaviour. She failed to appear, to answer these charges. We found no mitigating circumstances. We felt there was no reason for levying other than the maximum penalty."

Information concerning rights of appeal may be found in Section C.III of the Code of Behaviour on Academic Matters. The deadline for filing an appeal by you or by the University is May 2nd, 1994.

Yours truly,

Lynn Snowden
Secretary
University Tribunal

c.c.: J. Pepino
L.R. Rothstein
M. Cuddy-Keane
D. Perry
D. Cook
A. Sedra