Mr. I.

Mississauga, Ontario

Dear Mr. I.

At its hearing on April 18, 1994, the University Tribunal considered the following charges against you:

THAT on November 17, 1993 you did represent as your own, an idea or expression of an idea or a work of another in connection with a term test or other form of academic work, namely Lab Assignment #3 in GGR 117Y;

THAT on November 17, 1993, you did use or possess an unauthorized aid or aids or obtain unauthorized assistance in a term test or in connection with any other form of academic work, in that you did use the work of Mr. H. in preparing Assignment #3 in GGR 117Y;

THAT on December 1, 1993, you did represent as your own an idea or expression of an idea or work of another in a term test or in another form of academic work namely, Lab Assignment #4 in GGR 117Y; and

THAT on December 1, 1993 you did use or possess an unauthorized aid or aids or obtain unauthorized assistance in a term test or in connection with any other form of academic work, in that you did use the work of Mr. H. in preparing Lab Assignment #4 in GGR 117Y.

In particular, on November 17, 1993, you submitted Lab Assignment #3, and on December 1, 1993 Lab Assignment #4, both assignments having been copied in whole or in part from another student.

After you had pled guilty to the first and third charges, the University withdrew the remaining charges. The jury unanimously agreed to impose the following sanctions:

- a grade of '0' in GGR 117Y;
- suspension from the University for a period of two years;

and that:

- notation of the sanction and the reasons for it to be recorded on your transcript for a period of five years; and
- that the decision and the sanctions imposed be reported to the Provost for publication in the University newspapers.

The jury gave the following reasons for its decision: "We found the arguments of the University's representative compelling. In particular, since this was not Mr. I.'s first conviction under the Code, we felt that without a severe sanction, the likelihood of a repeat offence would be significant. In addition, we felt that Mr. I. would benefit from a period of reflection and reassessment of his academic interests."

Information concerning rights of appeal may be found in Section C.III of the Code of Behaviour on Academic Matters. The deadline for filing an appeal by you or by the University is May 17, 1994.

Yours truly,

Lynn Snowden
Secretary
University Tribunal
